A WORLD OF PICTURE BOOKS, MADE BY YOU

a celebration of children's stories

Memetales partners with art schools, art classes and/or students who wish to create picture books for children by authoring and/or illustrating books.

Memetales is a wonderful platform for schools to help students get their work into the real world, reach a wide audience and build a portfolio while learning the skills involved in creating books. There is NO better way to market your skills!

If interested, please email maya@memetales.com (subject: collaboration) with a sample art/writing
